Repurposed

Repurposing is all the craze. The idea is to take a once useful item, such as a piece of furniture, and "repurpose" it for a new use. An old tire rim becomes a new fire pit. An old wooden warehouse cart becomes a new coffee table. An old wheel barrow becomes a new herb garden planter on a back porch. The item may have fallen into disrepair, or outlived its original use or simply been discarded. Repurposing gives the item a new life and new value to its owner. Repurposing, recycling and restoration are all ways of bringing back to life something that is of little or no use.

In the hands of God, we were renewed when we turned ourselves over to Him at our baptism. Paul wrote, "He saved us, not on the basis of deeds which we have done in righteousness, but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit," (Titus 3:5). God makes from the damaged, outcast and useless, something valuable and precious to Him. Through that repurposing He blesses not only us, but others as well.

Repurposing is also a choice action that we can take. When Paul writes in 2 Corinthians 9:7, "Each one must do just as he has purposed in his heart, not grudgingly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver," he describes believers who predetermine, from a generous heart, to give abundantly of their financial means. But sometimes our heart isn't what it should be, and our original "purposing" is lacking and is tied to selfish desire. It isn't out of a thankful and generous spirit. We may give what we have purposed, but not what we should give. It is then time to repurpose our giving and our heart.

Originally God purposed us to bring Him glory and to do His will. This is what gives us great value and results in blessings for us and others. Along the way, we may fall into disrepair and become useless. We need to turn our hearts back over to God for repurposing. We need to make a choice and act to repurpose our purposing, giving our all to Him.
